

Daffodil Tea 28 March 2009

A Gateside tradition will be revived this year when the historic Daffodil Tea will once again be held in the Village Hall from 3.00 - 5.00 p.m.. There will be something for all the family.

Starting at 3.00 p.m. there will be an Easter Quiz for the children. There will also be prizes for the best ready-decorated egg. There will be a singalong led by local talent, with teas, sandwiches and cakes to keep your strength up!

Ladies' Pamper Night

A sell-out Ladies' Pamper Night was held on Saturday 21 February in the Hall - gentlemen were not invited.

The evening started as it intended to go on - with the serving of Kir Royal and canapes. Everybody who attended had an opportunity to have a pamper treatment, attend a make-up masterclass and learn more about bra fitting (now you know why no men were invited!). There was also an opportunity to purchase products from the Body Shop and Gerry's Organics.

There were goody bags, other freebie give aways and some stunning prizes, including a day for two at the spa in Lomond Hills Hotel. Maureen Andrews won the Debenham's gift voucher. The evening raised £450 towards running the Hall.

Gateside WRI

Gateside WRI is 88 years old this month! The WRI, known informally as the Rural, not only gives ladies the opportunity to enjoy the company of other members at monthly meetings and discuss local issues, but also the chance to attend classes and demonstrations in crafts and cookery - to name a few - as well as learn new skills.

To be able to look forward to the next 88 years, the Rural are looking to recruit new members. Come and join us! The WRI meet on the 3rd Thursday of each month at 7.30 and the programme of events is always posted on the Station road notice board and in the Memorial hall window. Visitors are very welcome!
